

Imagitect - Copyright Guide

You must have the legal rights to use any image you wish to have printed on Imagitect. If there is any doubt as to the copyright status of the image, the work may not be printed. We recommend thoroughly researching the origin and copyright status of any image you intend to use before your order is placed with us. This will help you avoid unnecessary delays and potential copyright infringement claims and/or other intellectual property claims.

On our proof sheets customers will find 2 versions of copyright language. They were created to indicate and clarify ownership of the copyright of the design to be printed on Imagitect.

Client Statement of Ownership

This language clarifies the owner of the copyright, and allows it to be printed by Impact Specialties. This can be used when a customer's image or a third party image is being printed.

(hereafter "C/S"), that CUSTOMER is the owner of all rights in and to the image, photo, or design called "ART", which has been provided to I/S, including all copyrights.

CUSTOMER hereby grants to I/S a non-exclusive license to publish, use and reproduce the ART. CUSTOMER represents and warrants to I/S that it has the legal right and authority to grant such a license. CUSTOMER agrees to indemnify and hold harmless I/S from any and all liability, damages and expenses (including, but not limited to, attorney's fees and costs) arising out of I/S' publication, use or reproduction of the ART, including but not limited to claims brought by any person or entity claiming a copyright or other ownership interest in the ART or its content.
